The Rooks

- Jane Euphemia

The rooks are buildings on the trees;
They build there every spring:
“Caw, caw,” is all they say,
For none of them can sing.
They’re up before the break of day,
And up till late at night;
For they must labour busily
As long as it is light.
And many a crooked stick they bring,
And many a slender twig,
And many a tuft of moss, until
Their nests are round and big.
“Caw, caw.” oh, what a noise
They make in rainy weather!
Good children always speak by turns,
But rooks all talk together.
